14. Additional Information:

Political Restriction

This post is politically restricted under the Local Government and Housing Act 1989, as amended by the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 and the post holder may not have any active political role either in or outside work.

Context of Role:

Operating

The role is about the strategic leadership, commissioning and management of a wide range of services and diverse partnerships. The post holder will need to promote, develop, lead and manage effective partnership working and strategic alliances with internal and external stakeholders including authorities, partner organisations and other agencies in order to achieve continuous improvement in the provision of services and input into policy developments.

Environment

The role regularly interacts with partners, commercial providers, businesses, developers and investors, district, town and parish councils, community groups, interest groups, and strategic leaders across the public and voluntary sectors, locally, nationally and internationally.

The post holder will need to operate in a political environment with a number of political groups across the Council, being aware of and taking into account political considerations when giving advice yet remaining politically neutral at all times.

The post holder will be required to advise the administration of the Council on how to achieve their priorities, yet also be able to provide advice to opposition groups as to how to challenge should they wish to do so. This requires careful handling to ensure all groups maintain confidence in the team's impartiality and a recognition that policies and priorities of the political groups in the Council may be different.

To continue to deliver services and to ensure that the Council is legally compliant in the services that they deliver as resources reduce, thus avoiding legal challenge as far as possible.

The post holder will play a key influencing role in respect of the statutory, independent, voluntary and private sector organisations that operate within local communities. This will require regular attendance and membership [where appropriate] at board level meetings, and regular engagement within and leadership of key stakeholder events and public events.

Framework

The role is governed by a clear statutory framework and other key legislation that relates to the statutory functions of Local Authorities- the Care Act 2014 and the Children and Families Act 2014 specifically. The role is further governed by health and safety legislation, contract and financial management regulations, relevant inspection and regulation or assurance frameworks (including Ofsted and CQC), and the Council's constitution.
